Dear Sir:

Please advise me at what price I shall get your cottage.

This inquiry is prompted by my having seen your "ad." in Daily Herald.

Respectfully yours,

Geo. B. Skinner

My dear Mr. Chapman :-

I am informed that you have rented your cottage to my customer Mrs. E. R. McCord of No. 600 North State Street, Chicago, Ills.,

I had already given her a very complete description of your cottage and had put the price at $1350.. and I can readily understand why she would hire direct from you by your offering to rent same for $1200.. and shall, therefore, expect you to pay my commission.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Henry Chapman, Jr.,
